IN TERNSHIP

AI_ML Virtual Internship

AWS -2023

·Completed modules on supervised and unsupervised learning, as well as neural networks, during the AWS AI/ML Virtual Internship.
·Acquired practical knowledge of real-world ML workflows, enhancing problem-solving abilities and technical development skills.
·Strengthened understanding of end-to-end ML pipelines, including data collection, model building, and performance tuning

PROJECT

Doctor Appointment System

github.com/Surendra1345/hospital-management.git ·Developed Prescripto, a full-stack healthcare platform supporting patient, doctor, and admin user roles.
·Utilized Zod schema validation for secure and robust form input handling.
·Designed a responsive and accessible UI with real-time updates for appointment statuses and prescription records.
·Strengthened skills in React.js, MongoDB, and REST API design for scalable health tech applications.

Restaurant Menu System

github.com/Surendra1345/Restaurant-Menu-System.git ·Created a dynamic web interface for displaying a rotating daily menu with real-time availability indicators based on item stock.
·Integrated features such as a shopping cart, checkout functionality, and table reservation system to enhance the dining experience.
·Focused on component-based architecture, modular code design, and responsive frontend development.
